

A French Journey Newsletter

Your French Journey!

As we say:

"La musique adoucit les moeurs"

and might be really helpful to learn new words, new pronunciations and shape our ears to a new language.

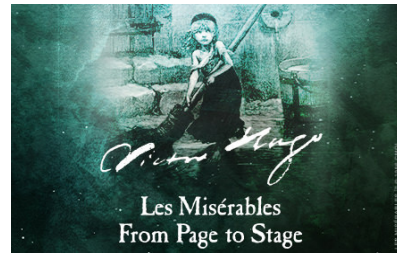

A French Journey takes you to a musical adventure amongst the most famous French singers.

If you fall for one voice, keep the name and listen to the rest of his/her discography, and who knows you might save a lot of time!

Quoi de Neuf???

Les Miserables- From Page to Stage is on at the National Library of Victoria

Until the 9th November, you can make an unforgettable journey from the 19th-century Paris of Victor Hugo's novel Les Misérables to today's musical.

The exhibition features rare items from the collections of the Bibliothèque nationale de France, Maisons de Victor Hugo, Musée Rodin but also costume and rare designs from ancient productions.

French Connections

This month Apéritif is about to surprise you as our friends from Le Van du Livre (French books on wheels) will visit us with their incredible van, plus you can shop for all your French cultural goods !

SAVE THE DATE AND JOIN US FRIDAY
29TH AUGUST AT 6:30

French-Matic

This month, watch a really funny video about

CLICHÉ!

brightly conceived and sketched by Cédric Villain