

A French Journey Newsletter

A word from Nathalie

Dear students,

It's time to say goodbye ...

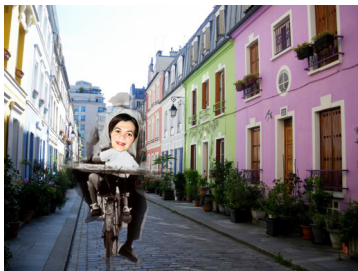

J-15 before "le grand retour en France"

I will miss you all but can't wait to share the adventures

Check my blog: www.nathalieanice.wordpress.com

to hear all about my "French journey",

Nathalie.

Quoi de Neuf???

June is a month full of remembrance in France, and this year even more as it is the 70th birthday of D-Day and of the Liberation of France.

We suggest you to visit this webpage...

...where this passionate has gathered historical pictures of the Liberation of Paris and transposed them into today's Paris. The result is truly astonishing.

French Connections

The term is almost finished and it was great to share all those great moments with you. Our next rendez-vous, will be the Friday 25th July at 6:30 for C'est l'heure de L'Apéritif!

As the group classes are starting the following week, it will be a nice way to catch up !

French-Matic

Discover a new French idiom or proverb every month

SE FAIRE UN SANG D'ENCRE

"Je me fais un sang d'encre pour lui"

Literally: I'm making ink blood about him

Meaning: I'm worried sick about him