

A French Journey...

Your French Journey!

Discover a beautiful French place each month...

France's most beautiful treasures are for sure its villages. Those surprising architectural and historic places are spread all around the country. Sometimes hard to find and to include in a trip, this website created by a passionate will certainly give you new ideas for your next trip or help you catch the most of the region you are planning to see!

Collonges la Rouge - Corrèze

Quoi de Neuf???

We hope you all enjoyed Easter, and we are happy to start this new term after ANZAC Day. Here is a link to the website of the Franco-Australian Museum of Villers-Bretonneux in France. The Museum celebrates ANZAC every year and is preparing a lot of events for the upcoming Centenary.

Please note that according to the ANZAC commemoration there will be no C'est l'heure de l'Apéritif this month. You can find all the dates of our next rendez-vous on our website.

French Connections

Remember Francois Pignon, the anti-hero from the Dinner of Fools? He is back for another crazy adventure in the play Cher Trésor produced by the Melbourne French Theatre.

We are going to see it on the 10th May. You can still join us and buy your ticket directly at the door.

Click on the poster to get more details.

French-Matic

Each month a French idiom or proverb.

« NE PAS AVOIR FROID AUX YEUX »

"Il n'a pas froid aux yeux"
(He doesn't have cold to his eyes literally)
means that
He is full of cheek
