

A French Journey...

Dear students,

Unfortunately summer is taking its time to arrive, so here are few tips to discover some French culture while keeping warm and dry!

Kind regards, The French journey teaching team.

Quoi de Neuf???

October is the month of “la Nuit Blanche” in France. This year, Paris was invaded by art installations, such as this massive fog cloud draping the Place de la République.

If you want to see French movies, from November 1th to 3rd, the George Revival Cinema in St Kilda makes its Spotlight on French Cinéma, with a great selection of famous movies (Amélie, la Haine...)

And for the youngest of us, the last adventure of French heros Asterix & Obelix is out! You can even order it in French at “Le Forum”

French Connections

Introducing our new monthly event, the last friday of the month:

C'est l'Heure de l'Apéritif!

A French drink & chat

-next one Friday 29th november-and don't forget, Sunday 10th November, we are hosting “Un Dimanche à la campagne” in Jindivick

A great way to finish the year and celebrate summer!

French-Matic

Each month a French idiom or proverb.

« AVOIR LA PÊCHE ! »

*when you say «J'ai la pêche »
(I have the peach literally)
it means that you are in good form!*
