

A French Journey...

Dear students,

The term is almost finished, but before meeting you next term (starting October 8th), please find enclosed some French tips for your holidays...

Kind regards,
French Journey Teaching Team.

Your French Journey!

Discover a beautiful French place each month...

It's time to discover -or to rediscover for the lucky ones! - the marvelous beauty of the Eiffel Tower, incredibly celebrated by Google!

Click here to make it happen

Quoi de Neuf???

September is the month of the grapes harvest in France, wineries of Champagne and South of France are very busy right now. To enjoy and discover the changes in the winery industry in Bordeaux, we recommend you the movie Red Obsession, now in theatres. Click here to see the trailer.

If you prefer reading, you may be tempted by All good things, the new adventure of Sarah Turnbull (author of Almost French). Here is an interview of her, in French!

French Connections

Save the date!

Sunday 10th November

Join us in Jindivick

with Anita (Let's have lunch - French caterer)
and Sam (Tarago Olives - French olive producer)

A day in the country, including French cooking class, olive tasting and lots of fun!

A great way to finish the year and celebrate summer!

French-Matic

Each month a French idiom or proverb.

“Quand le vin est tiré,
il faut le boire!”

Literally: When the wine is out of the barrel, it must be drunk!
English Idiom : In for a penny, in for a pound!
