

A French Journey Newsletter

Your French Journey!

September news will be marked by sailors!

Since a new way of discovering Paris is emerging, you can now rent small electrical boats to browse along the canals or only to enjoy an aperitif for an hour!

If you want to learn more about this new way of experiencing Paris, away from the crowded Bateaux-Mouches, just click on the pictures!

Personnaly, we can't wait to try them!

Quoi de Neuf???

Starting the 17th October,

JEAN-PAUL GAULTIER

invades the National Gallery of Victoria.

Get ready for an amazing adventure in the world of one of the most crazy French designers!

French Connections

Reminder!

New term starts the week of 6th October, if you haven't done it yet, don't forget to email Nathalie (info@frenchjourney.com.au) to enrol.

Sailors are famous for their outspokenness - one's could say their swearing - so let's learn from the most francophile of them, Captain Haddock

MARIN D'EAU DOUCE!

> landlubber

Obviously not a compliment coming from our captain!

MILLE SABORDS!

> Thousands of portholes

Unbelievable! Or can replace any curse word. This expression is only in Haddock's mind. You won't hear it elsewhere.

TONNERRE DE BREST!

> Brest's thunder

Expresses the surprise or the anger. Apparently the expression came from a canon that used to be fired in Brest when prisoners were escaping the prison. And/or when the Brits were invading the port
